

November 11th, 2025
Japan Coast Guard

Participation in the Manila Dialogue

On November 7th, Vice Commandant for Operations, KANOSUE participated in “the Manila Dialogue”[※], which was held in the Philippines.

In this dialogue, he participated in the Sixth Plenary Session on “Maritime Capacity-Building for a Rules-based, Equitable and Sustainable Maritime Order in the Indo-Pacific” and exchanged views and opinions with attendees.

※ The Manila Dialogue:

The Manila Dialogue is a conference attended by maritime security agencies, diplomatic officials, academics and others, primarily from Southeast Asia and the Indo-Pacific region, to discuss various issues surrounding the South China Sea with a view to promoting the region’s shared interest in a free and open rules-based maritime order.

1. Date and Venue

Date : November 5th to November 7th, 2025

Venue : Grand Hyatt Manila, Philippines

2. Participants(only the Sixth Plenary Session)

Japan Coast Guard(JCG) : Vice Commandant for Operations KANOSUE

Philippine Coast Guard(PCG) : Rear Admiral Supangan

Indonesian Coast Guard(BAKAMLA) : First Admiral Askari

Panel Chair : Dr. John Bradford, Executive Director, the Yokosuka Council on Asia-Pacific Studies

3. Summary

In the Sixth Plenary Session, Vice Commandant for Operations KANOSUE provided an explanation of JCG’s achievements in capacity building support for countries on the Indo-Pacific Coast and other neighboring countries. He also remarked that maintaining maritime order based on the rule of law is essential for regional and global peace and stability, continuing to work towards the realization of a Free and Open Indo-Pacific through international cooperation and collaboration.

Sixth Plenary Session

Sixth Plenary Session Group